Computing –

This term year five will be developing their knowledge of flat file databases and programming skills.

Reading –

This term we will be reading 'Floodland' by Marcus Sedgwick and 'The nowhere emporium' by Ross MacKenzie.

PSHE –

This term Year 5 will be looking at:

Money and economics

Feelings and friendships

Health, relationships and sex education (HRSE)

Religious Education -

This term Year 5 will be developing their knowledge of religions to answer the big questions:

-Was Jesus the Messiah? (Christianity)

- What matters most to Humanists and Christians?

English - 'The forgotten heroes'

Narrative: We will be explore alternate endings to narratives, using a range of creative writing features to write a sequel to 'Floodland'. (Writing to entertain)

Poetry: we will be exploring a range of poems linked to the environment and rivers; specifically looking at Sonnets and rhyming poems. (Writing to entertain).

Music-

This term Year 5 will be learning the song 'livin' on a prayer'

Year 5 Summer –

Extreme earth.

French-

This term Year 5 will be learn:

-How to describe their family.

-How to describe their house and town.

- How to say their date of birth.

Art/Design -

We will be looking at the style of Trompe L'oeil from 1874, comparing it to artwork today.

Later, we will also be creating our own flood alarms.

Maths -

This term we will be focussing on:

- Shape
- Position and direction
- Decimals
- Negative numbers
- Converting units
- volume

Science –

This term Year 5 will be learning about reproduction of a plant and animal and also reversible and irreversible changes.

Humanities –

This term Year 5 will visit Tewkesbury, to take part in a flooding workshop, comparing the town to 2007 and interview local residents.

We will also learn how rivers are formed, the impact of flooding and the main rivers in the UK.

Later in the term, we will identify the key features of a mountain range, comparing the land in Switzerland to the UK.